

Saturday, November 7, 2009 ■ 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Sacramento Convention Center ■ Downtown Sacramento

The Association of California School Administrators is pleased to offer a new one-day program focusing on strategies used by current practitioners at schools that have raised test scores and narrowed the achievement gap between African-American and Latino students and their Caucasian and Asian counterparts.

Topic areas include:

- Academic Language Development at the Elementary Level: Traditional, Dual Immersion
- Academic Language Development in Content Areas for 7-12 grades
- Education is a Civil Right (based on the commissioned paper by the National Association for Black School Educators)
- Building Inclusive Communities
- Building Academic Success Through the Arts

Registration Fees:

Because this Institute overlaps the annual Leadership Summit, the cost of registering for “Stories of Success” will also include the Saturday Leadership Summit General Session, lunch, handouts and a closing celebratory social.

$150 - ACSA Members

$300 - Non member, eligible for membership

$150 - Non member, not eligible for membership

$100 - ACSA Members already registered for the 2009 Leadership Summit
